

Fast Fashion and Climate Change

What is fast fashion?

Fill out your KWL Chart

Where is your clothing made from?

Once you're done, discuss it with people around you. Where are their clothes made?

Hint: Find the "Made In" tag

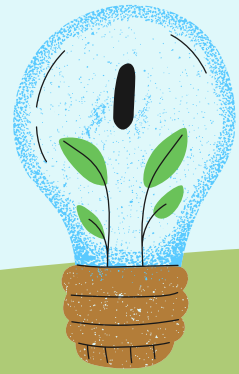

Where is your clothing made from?

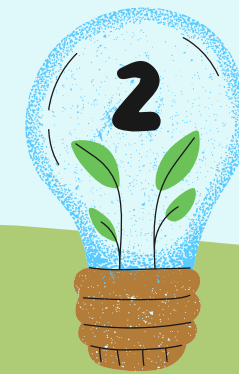

Where and how is our clothing made? What are the steps that are taken for the fabrics to be made and shipped to the stores?

What are the environmental implications of producing clothes?

LIFE CYCLE OF A PAIR OF JEANS

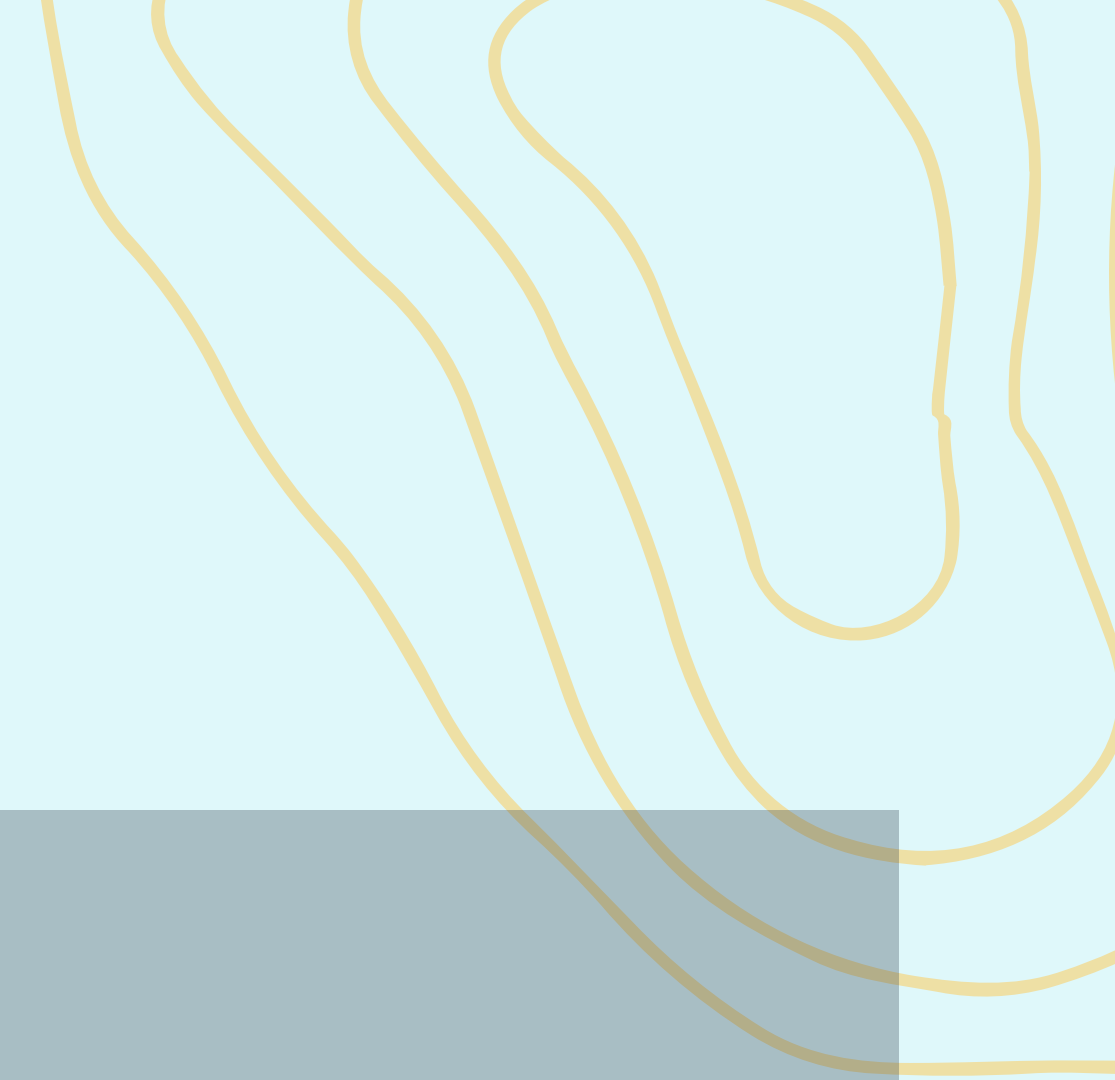

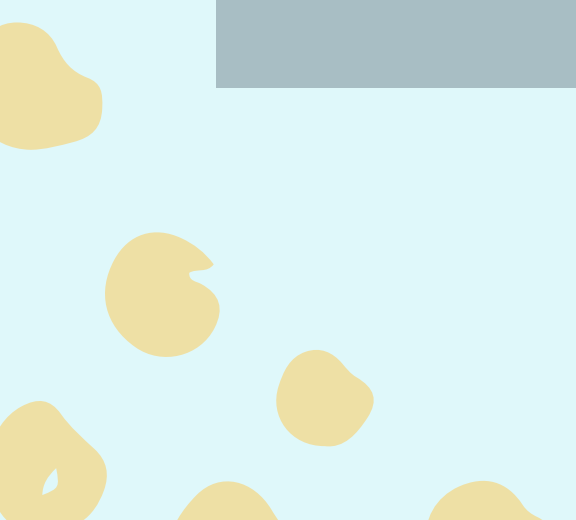

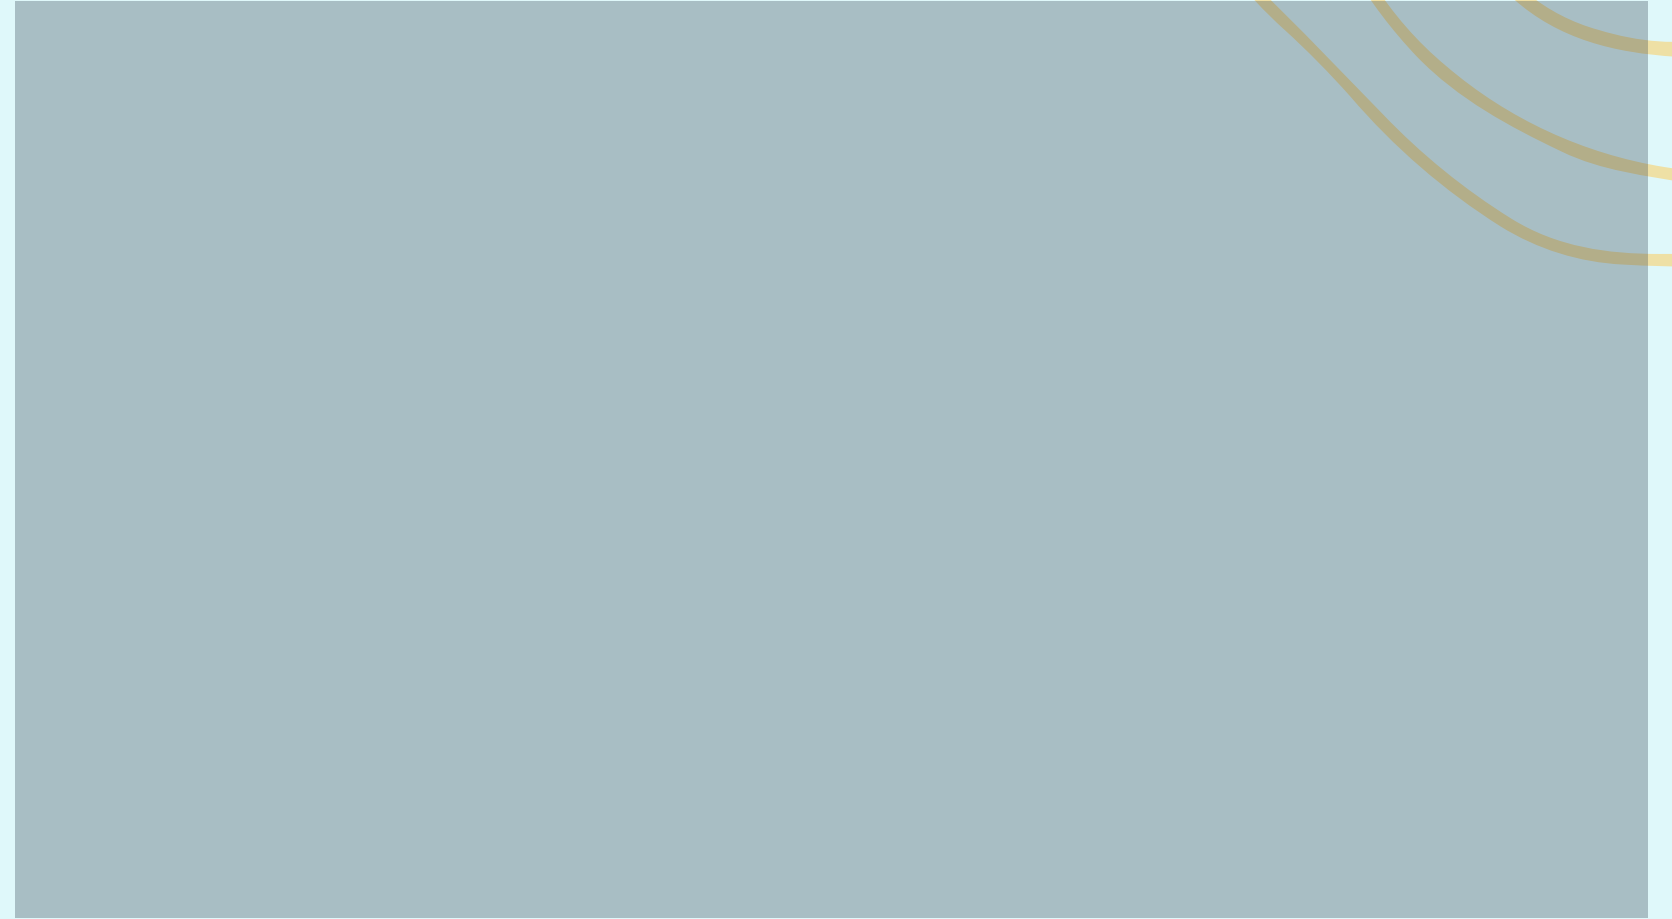

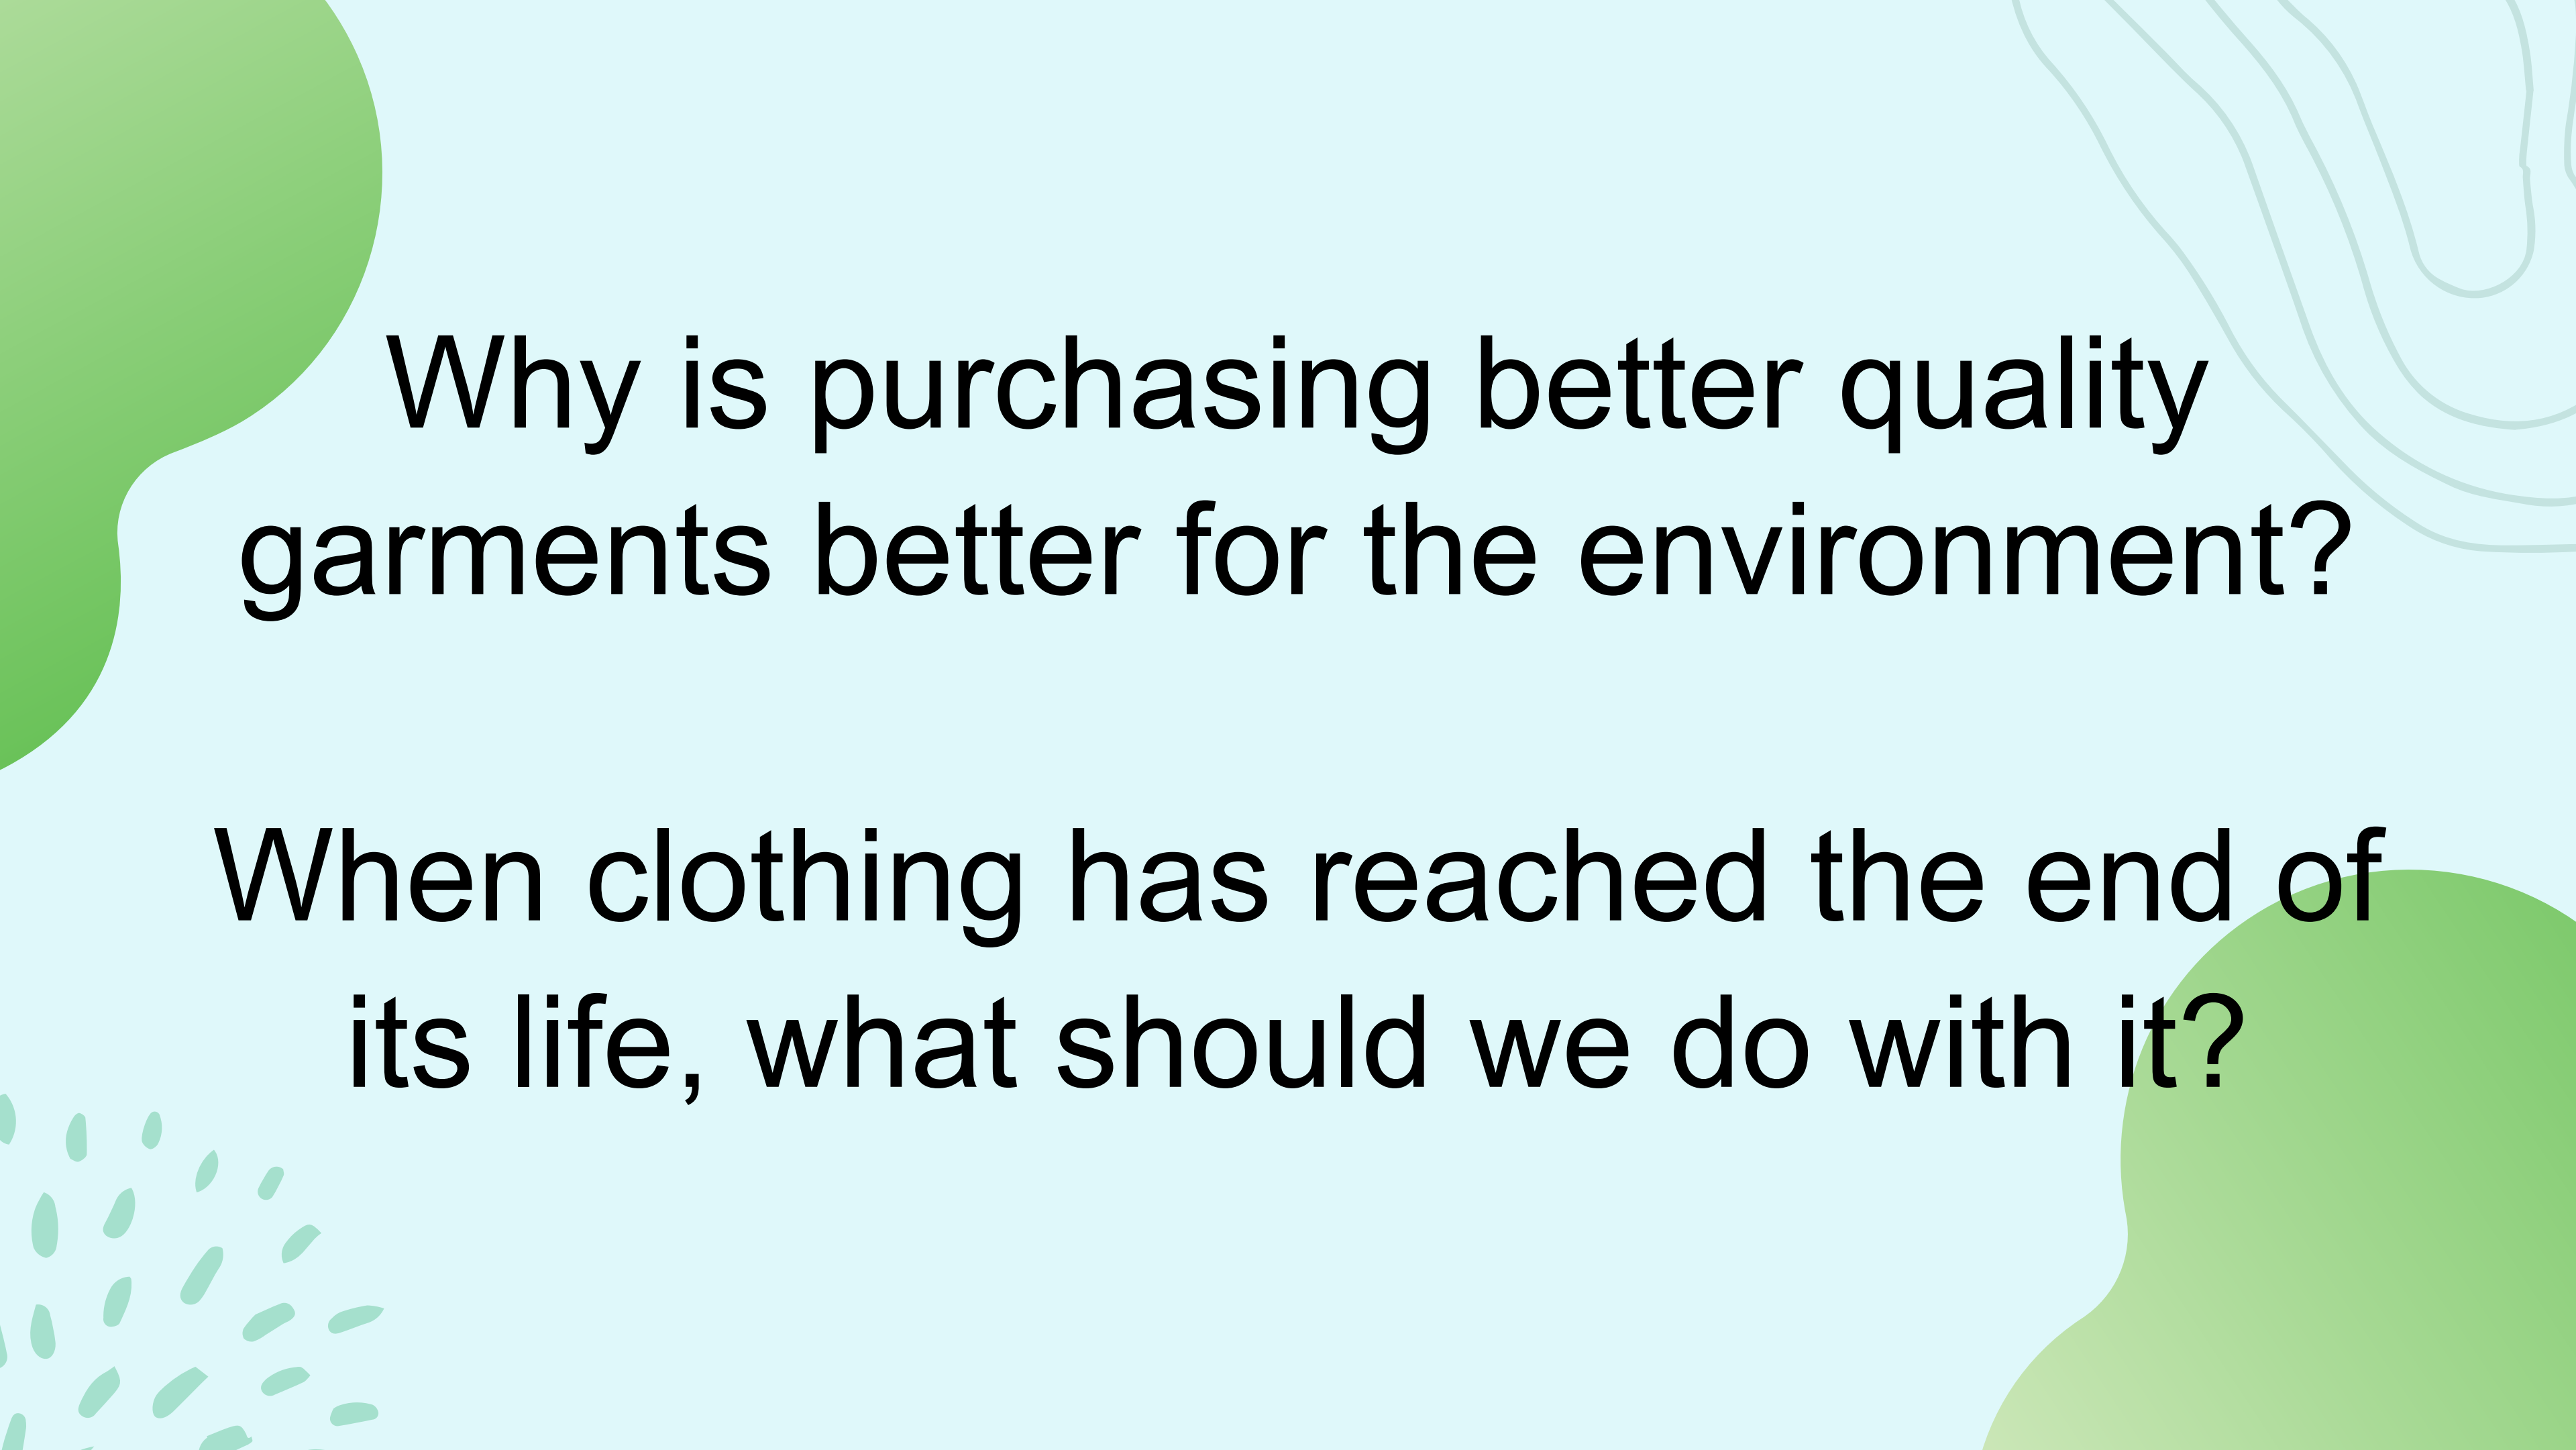

Re-arrange your cards to demonstrate how a pair of jeans is made from start to finish.

What are the environmental impacts when clothing is produced at each stage?

Fast Fashion & Climate Change

Why is purchasing better quality garments better for the environment?

When clothing has reached the end of its life, what should we do with it?

The background is a light green gradient. On the left, there are large, stylized green leaves. On the right, there are smaller, detailed green leaves. A dashed teal border frames the central text. The text is in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

Time to Take Action!

Action Plan Choice Board

Lesson 1: Action Plan Choice Board

Choose one of the options to showcase your learning about how fast fashion impacts climate change. For all the options, explain the path of how clothing is produced to the end point. Include some strategies for people to reduce their consumption of clothing as well. You can choose a specific clothing item or brand. These options can be delivered on paper or digitally.

Paragraph	Poster	Skit
Write a paragraph or multiple paragraphs. You can utilize different writing styles (i.e. informational, persuasive, etc.) to best convey your understanding.	Create a visual representation of your learning. Utilize captions and text boxes. Include pictures and make it colourful!	Create a dialogue informing your audience. You can assign characters, take on different personalities, and even create props.

Extension: If you would like to further your thinking or gather more information, check out the articles section on this website or conduct your own research!

